1. Even in a fallen world where is most clearly revealed the principles of God’s kingdom? (291.1)

2. If we want to commune with God among the things of nature who must we have in our heart? (291.1)

3. Why did Jesus call His disciples? (291.3)

4. Before ordaining His disciples what did Jesus do? (291.4)

5. Why is John considered “the one whom Jesus loved”? (292.1)

6. Though Philip struggled with unbelief, what did it take to turn him into a teacher after the divine order? (293.1)

7. What was the ultimate reason Jesus did not repulse Judas? (294.3)

8. How only could the demon of selfishness be banished from the heart of Judas? (294.3)

9. What are the possibilities when God uses imperfect people? (294.4)

10. Though in the presence of Jesus how did Judas become a representative of Satan? (295.3-4)

11. Though naturally proud and ambitious how did John respond to Jesus? (295.5)

12. Though the disciples were very different what brought them into unity? (296.2)

13. Why does divinity need humanity? (296.4)

14. How can God “partner” with us today? (297.1)