

Jesus—#30 “He Ordained Twelve” (8-18-10)

Texts: Luke 6:12-16

Desire of Ages, p. 290-297

1. Even in a fallen world where is most clearly revealed the principles of God’s kingdom? (291.1)

---

---

2. If we want to commune with God among the things of nature who must we have in our heart? (291.1)

---

---

3. Why did Jesus call His disciples? (291.3)

---

---

4. Before ordaining His disciples what did Jesus do? (291.4)

---

---

5. Why is John considered “the one whom Jesus loved”? (292.1)

---

---

6. Though Philip struggled with unbelief, what did it take to turn him into a teacher after the divine order? (293.1)

---

---

7. What was the ultimate reason Jesus did not repulse Judas? (294.3)

---

---

8. How only could the demon of selfishness be banished from the heart of Judas? (294.3)

---

---

9. What are the possibilities when God uses imperfect people? (294.4)

---

---

10. Though in the presence of Jesus how did Judas become a representative of Satan? (295.3-4)

---

---

11. Though naturally proud and ambitious how did John respond to Jesus? (295.5)

---

---

12. Though the disciples were very different what brought them into unity? (296.2)

---

---

13. Why does divinity need humanity? (296.4)

---

---

14. How can God “partner” with us today? (297.1)

---

---