

Jesus—#31b “Sermon on Mount” (9-1-10)

Texts: Matthew 5-7

Desire of Ages, p. 298-314

1. Why are Christians not to withdraw from the world to escape persecution? (306.3)

2. To what do the wicked owe the blessing of this life? (306.4)

3. What is worse than an unbeliever? (306.4)

4. What must we do if we wish to direct others in the path of righteousness? (307.1)

5. Why did God (Christ) proclaim the Law at Sinai? (308.3)

6. If a person willfully disregards one principle of God’s law, what will he not be able to do? (308.4)

7. What constituted pharisaical righteousness? Why is it not sufficient? (309.1)

8. What was the greatest deception in Christ’s day? (309.2)

9. What will become a curse to the possessor and a curse to the world? (309.3)

10. How only can sinful people conform to the righteousness Jesus taught? (310.1)

11. What is promised to every repentant person and what will this do? (311.2)

12. How only are we to overcome sin and attain to the glory of the character of God? (311.4-5)

13. How only can we become workers together with God in presenting His character in humanity? (312.1)

14. What happens if one sin is cherished, or one wrong practice retained? (312.4)

15. What does it mean to you that you are given a page “in the book of God’s providence”? (313.3)
