

Jesus—#35 “Peace, Be Still” (9-29-10)

Texts: Matthew 8:23-34

Desire of Ages, p. 333-341

1. Why had the disciples forgotten Jesus? (334.4)

2. Why did doubt and fear assail the disciples of Jesus? (334.4)

2. How could Jesus rest so peacefully, while He and His disciples seem to be in danger of death? (334.6)

3. What cry of the soul never goes unheeded? (335.1-2)

4. When Jesus was awakened in the midst of this deadly storm, why was He in perfect peace? (336.1)

5. Why were the disciples fearful during this time of danger? (336.2)

6. What only can bring peace to the masterful passions of the human heart? (336.4)

7. Why didn't Jesus flee from these demoniacs? (337.2)

8. What did these unfortunate men recognize in Jesus? (337.3)

9. Why did a “marvelous change” come over these men? (338.2)

10. Why was declaring what Jesus had done for them a greater blessing than being in the actual presence of Jesus? (339.4)

11. Why did Jesus send the delivered demoniacs back to their homes, with what results? (340.1)

12. What was the lesson for Jesus' disciples concerning the demoniacs of Gergesa? (341.1)

13. What is the only safeguard against Satan's power? (341.1)

14. Those who once were degraded instruments of Satan are sent forth to tell what? (341.2)

What do these two stories have in common?