

Jesus—#36 “The Touch of Faith” (10-6-10)

Texts: Matthew 9:18-26

Desire of Ages, p. 342-348

1. What did Jesus do on the way to Jairus' home? (342.4)

2. Why did the crowd at Jairus' home laugh Jesus to scorn? (343.1)

3. Why did this girl's parents weep for joy? (343.3)

4. Why did the woman who had been bleeding for twelve years feel assured that Jesus could heal her? (343.4)

5. How could this woman be healed when she barely touched the edge of Jesus' garment? (343.5)

6. Why were the people—and the disciples—amazed when Jesus asked, “Who touched Me?” (344.1-2)

7. Why did Jesus want to know who touched Him? (344.2)

8. What did Jesus want people to understand about faith through this miracle? (344.3)

9. What is the danger of waiting until we have complete knowledge before exercising faith in God? (347.1)

10. Why is “saving faith” more than an opinion? (347.1)

11. Why are we to acknowledge God's goodness to us? (347.2-3)

12. What has an irresistible power that works for the salvation of souls? (347.3)

13. What does ingratitude to God do for us? (348.1)

14. Why is it to our benefit to keep every gift of God fresh in our memory? (348.2)

15. How could you set up “stones of witness” unto the Lord? (348.2)

Silent Witness: The Language of Your Home, by Georg Andersen