

Jesus—#56 “Blessing the Children”

Texts: Matt 19:13-15

Desire of Ages, p. 511-517

1. What was it about Jesus that won the love and confidence of the children? (511.1)

---

---

2. How did this gathering of moms and children get started? (511.3)

---

---

3. Why were the mothers comforted, strengthened, and encouraged? (512.1)

---

---

4. What does Jesus know about mothers today? (512.2)

---

---

5. If we live in communion with God, what can we expect? (512.3)

---

---

6. How did Jesus “come down to their level”? Why? (512.4)

---

---

7. How can “little children” be Christians? (515.1)

---

---

8. What should we teach our children to do with their sins? (515.3)

---

---

9. How does a mother teach the first lessons in the Christian life? (515.4)

---

---

10. What will the grace of Christ in the father’s heart accomplish? (515.5)

---

---

11. What is the method of the gardener that parents are to follow? (516.1)

---

---

12. Why are there so many hardhearted men and women in the world? (516.2)

---

---

13. What must we do if we want our children to possess the tender spirit of Jesus? (516.2)

---

---

14. How can we teach our children to see Christ in nature? (516.3)

---

---

15. How can we keep the little ones away from Jesus? (517.3)

---

---

16. How can we cooperate with the Holy Spirit as He moves upon the hearts of children? (517.4)

---

---

17. How does Jesus look upon the children who have inherited objectionable traits of character? (517.5)

---

---