

Jesus—#75 “Before Annas and Caiaphas”

Texts: Matt 26:57-75; 27; John 18:13-27 Desire of Ages, p. 698-715

(In this study, look for a new, or a renewed insight about Jesus?)

1. Who was Annas and why did they take Jesus to him first? (698.2)

2. Why did Christ speak gently to the man who struck Him? (700.2)

3. What led Jesus to endure without complaint the abuse heaped upon Him by those he came to save? (700.5)

4. Why couldn't Jesus remain silent to the appeal made by Caiaphas? (706.4)

5. What was the significance of Caiaphas rending his robes? (708.3-709.3) (In your own words)

6. When was the nation of Israel divorced from God? (709.4)

7. Why did the ignorant rabble treat Christ so inhumanely? (710.1)

8. Why was John not questioned about his connection with Jesus? (711.1)

9. Why was Peter such an easy prey to temptation? (712.1)

10. As Peter found himself in Gethsemane what was torturing his bleeding heart? (713.3)

11. What would have sustained the faith of the disciples and given them some rays of hope in their time of darkness? (713.4)

12. What stopped the satanic fury of the crowd from tearing Jesus to pieces? (715.1)
