

Jesus—#13 “The Victory” (2-17-10)

Texts: Matthew 4:5-11

Desire of Ages, p. 124-131

In this study, what new, or renewed insight have you found about Jesus?

1. Satan cannot compel us to do evil. He cannot control our mind unless we do what? (125.2)

---

---

2. What must we cherish that gives Satan a foothold? (125.2)

---

---

3. What does Satan do with our failure and defeat? (125.2)

---

---

4. Why would Jesus not force Providence to come to His rescue? (125.3)

---

---

5. How would you differentiate faith from presumption, when they both claim God’s promises? (126.1)

---

---

6. What does the author mean that Satan wants us “to place ourselves unnecessarily in the way of temptation”? (126.2)

---

---

7. What would keep us from rushing “into the way of danger”? (126.2)

---

---

8. Why does God sometimes allow temptation and trials? (126.3)

---

---

9. Even though Adam betrayed his sovereignty into Satan’s hands, who still remained the rightful King of this world? (129.4)

---

---

10. While alluring people with hopes of worldly dominion, what is Satan really seeking to gain dominion over? (130.2)

---

---

11. How did Jesus gain the complete victory over Satan in the wilderness? (130.4)

---

---

12. What can we do that will cause Satan to tremble and flee? (131.0)

---

---

13. As the redeemed look upon the glories of our eternal home, what will cause us to cast our crowns at our Redeemers feet? (131.2)
